1. Short Title

This is the Immigration Act 2011.

2. Purpose

The purpose of this Act is to confirm the Government of Niue's right to control its borders. This includes managing and efficiently addressing the risks associated with those persons who attempt to enter or remain in Niue unlawfully, or who use the immigration system for personal gain contrary to the aims of Government immigration policy. This Act achieves its purpose through-

- (a) confirming the inalienable right of New Zealand citizens born in Niue to travel to and remain in Niue;
- (b) confirming the right of all other New Zealand citizens, except those who are prohibited persons, to travel to and remain in Niue;
- (c) requiring all other persons to hold valid visas or permits, or exemptions from the requirement to hold a visa or permit, in order to travel to or remain in Niue;
- (d) providing an administrative structure to facilitate the management of the immigration system;
- (e) providing that Cabinet makes individual decisions in respect of those people who pose a particular risk to Niue, and those who apply for residence permits;
- (f) providing for an efficient response to the deportation of persons unlawfully in Niue, criminal offenders, or those that pose a national security or reputational risk to Niue;
- (g) confirming the minimum requirements that those engaging in and benefiting from the immigration system in Niue must observe;
- (h) requiring the licensing of immigration advisors;
- (i) providing for immigration offences and penalties to enable Niue to address offending and to deter against immigration offending.

3. Interpretation

In this Act -

“carrier” means the owner or charterer of a craft and includes the agent of the owner or charterer in Niue or if there is no agent the person in charge;

“certificate of identity” means a document other than a passport issued by the Government of any country to any person for the purposes of international travel which purports to establish the identity but not the nationality of the person and which confers on the person the right to enter the country of the issuing Government;

“craft” means any form of aircraft, ship or other vehicle or vessel capable of being used to transport any person to or from Niue from or to any country outside Niue;

“visa” means a visa granted under section 12.

“visitor” means any person not being a prohibited immigrant who enters Niue for a period not exceeding 30 days and who is in possession of a valid passport or other relevant travel document, and includes any one or more dependant members of the family of such person.

3A Application

- (1) With the exception of Part 7, this Act shall not apply to -
 - (a) The sea, land and air forces of any Commonwealth country; or
 - (b) Any person entitled to diplomatic privileges and immunities under the Diplomatic Privileges and Immunities Act 1968; or
 - (c) Any person entitled to consular privileges and immunities under the Consular Privileges and Immunities Act 1971; or
 - (d) Any person or class of persons in respect of whom the Cabinet in its discretion grants an exemption from all of the requirements of this Act.
- (2) With the exception of Part 7, this Act shall not apply to -
 - (a) A permanent resident of Niue; or
 - (b) A Niuean who was born in Niue; or

- (c) A person other than a Niuean who was born in Niue; or
- (d) A New Zealand citizen permanently residing in Niue prior to 1 January 1996.

PART 1 - GENERAL IMMIGRATION MATTERS

4. Rights of New Zealand citizens born in Niue

- (1) For the purposes of this Act, every New Zealand citizen born in Niue has the right to travel to or remain in Niue at any time.
- (2) Nothing in this Act shall abrogate the right declared in subsection (1) and no provision of this Act that is inconsistent with that right shall apply to New Zealand citizens born in Niue.
- (3) No New Zealand citizen born in Niue shall require a visa to travel to, or require a permit in order to remain, or undertake any activity, in Niue.
- (4) To avoid doubt a person to whom this section applies cannot be considered a prohibited person under this Act.
- (5) If section 9 applies to a New Zealand citizen, to whom section 4 does not apply, he or she must hold a valid visa in order to travel to, and a valid permit in order to remain in, Niue.
- (6) To avoid doubt a person to whom subsection (1) applies cannot have his or her right to travel to, or remain in, Niue revoked under Part 4.

5. Rights of persons who are not born in Niue

- (1) Subject to subsections (2) and (3), a person who is not born in Niue shall, upon application to the Chief Immigration Officer remain lawfully in Niue if that person has a parent that is either:
 - a) A New Zealand citizen and born in Niue, or
 - b) A permanent resident, and
 - c) who is ordinarily resident in Niue.
- (2) For the purposes of this section a person shall be deemed to be ordinarily resident in Niue if, and only if -
 - a) He is actually residing in Niue;
 - b) Having been actually resident in Niue with the intention of residing there indefinitely, he is outside Niue but has, and has ever since he left Niue an intention to return and reside there indefinitely.
- (3) Any person who has been outside Niue continuously for any period of more than 3 years, otherwise than for the purpose of:
 - a) undergoing medical treatment, or
 - b) a course of education or of technical training or instruction, or

c) any other purpose that Cabinet may prescribe by regulations from time to time.

during the whole or substantially the whole of that period, shall be deemed not to have been actually resident in Niue during that period with the intention of residing there indefinitely.

(4) A person under this section who is born overseas is deemed for the purposes of section 4 to be born in Niue.

6. Requirement to hold a visa to travel to Niue

(1) Every person must hold a valid visa granted under this Act in order to travel to Niue lawfully unless-

(a) he or she is exempt from the requirement to hold a visa under this Act; or

(b) he or she holds a valid residence permit.

(2) Cabinet may make regulations under this Act to exempt any person or class of persons from the requirement to hold a visa, or types of visa, in order to travel to Niue, but no regulations may exempt a person to whom section 9 applies from the requirement to hold a visa in order to travel to Niue.

(3) For the purposes of this section persons intending to arrive in Niue as transit passengers are deemed to be travelling to Niue.

7. Requirement to hold a permit to remain in Niue

(1) Every person must hold a valid permit granted under this Act in order to remain in Niue lawfully unless he or she is exempt from the requirement to hold a permit under this Act.

(2) Cabinet may make regulations under this Act to exempt any person or class of persons from the requirement to hold a permit, or types of permit, in order to remain in Niue, but no regulations may exempt a person to whom section 9 applies from the requirement to hold a permit in order to remain in Niue.

(3) Every person who is required to hold a valid permit in order to remain in Niue but who does not hold a valid permit is deemed to be unlawfully in Niue.

8. Persons unlawfully in Niue

(1) A person unlawfully in Niue is obliged to leave Niue immediately and is liable to be deported.

(2) Every person is required to report to an Immigration Officer at an Immigration Place on becoming unlawful in Niue.

(3) An Immigration Officer may require any person to provide his or her passport or certificate of identity for inspection if the Immigration Officer reasonably suspects the person of being unlawfully in Niue or breaching the conditions of his or her permit.

9. Prohibited persons

- (1) The following are prohibited persons and are unable to travel to, or remain in Niue, unless granted a visa or permit in accordance with subsection (2) or (3)-
 - (a) A person who at any time has been convicted of any offence for which that person has been sentenced to a period of imprisonment, whether served or not, that was-
 - (i) for an indeterminate period; or
 - (ii) for a period of 12 months or more:
 - (b) A person who has been removed or deported from any country including Niue:
 - (c) A person who in the opinion of Cabinet, Minister or the Chief Immigration Officer threatens national security:
 - (d) A person who in the opinion of Cabinet, Minister or the Chief Immigration Officer threatens the public order or public interest:
 - (e) A person who has failed to comply with the requirements under sections 33 and 34.
- (2) Cabinet may grant a prohibited person a visa or permit.
- (3) Nothing in subsection (2) gives any person to whom this section applies the right to apply for any visa or permit, and where any person purports to apply for any visa or permit under this section-
 - (a) Neither Cabinet nor the Minister is under any obligation to consider the application; and
 - (b) whether the application is considered or not, neither Cabinet nor the Minister is obliged to give any reasons for any decision relating to the application.
- (4) No person is a prohibited person under this section where:
 - (a) the event that would otherwise make him or her a prohibited person under this section occurred prior to the commencement of this Act; and
 - (b) he or she resided lawfully in Niue for the three years prior to the commencement of this Act; and
 - (c) in each of those three years he or she spent at least 200 days in each year in Niue.

10. Chief Immigration Officer

- (1) The Niue Public Service Commission must appoint a member of the Public Service as the Chief Immigration Officer who is responsible for the administration of this Act.
- (2) The Chief Immigration Officer may hold other positions in the Public Service while designated as the Chief Immigration Officer.

- (3) Unless otherwise stated in this Act the Chief Immigration Officer may not exercise the powers vested in Immigration Officers.
- (4) Where the Chief Immigration Officer is a Constable he or she may exercise the powers of an Immigration Officer under section 11(4).

11. Immigration Officers

- (1) The Chief Immigration Officer, after consultation with the Niue Public Service Commission, must designate employees of the Public Service as Immigration Officers for the purposes of this Act.
- (2) A person who is designated as an Immigration Officer must be issued with a warrant of designation signed by the Chief Immigration Officer which must be produced upon request when exercising any powers under this Act.
- (3) A person's designation as an Immigration Officer expires when-
 - (a) the person is no longer undertaking immigration duties as part of their employment; or
 - (b) it is revoked by the Chief Immigration Officer.
- (4) Constables are deemed to be designated as Immigration Officers but only for the purposes of sections 8(3), 27(1), 26(3), 26(4), 28(2), 31(1)(f), 31(1)(g), 31(1)(h) and 32(4).
- (5) A person may be designated as an Immigration Officer while holding other positions in the Public Service which do not involve immigration duties.

PART 2 - TEMPORARY ENTRY - VISAS AND TEMPORARY PERMITS

12. Visas

- (1) A visa entitles the holder to lawfully travel to Niue in accordance with the conditions stated on his or her visa and to apply for a temporary permit on arrival.
- (2) The grant of a visa is a matter of discretion for the Chief Immigration Officer.
- (3) A visa may be subject to any conditions imposed by the Chief Immigration Officer.
- (4) Every visa granted under this Act must-
 - (a) be in a form approved by the Chief Immigration Officer which may include electronic form; and
 - (b) be endorsed in the applicant's valid passport or valid certificate of identity unless the visa is granted in an electronic form; and
 - (c) state the date on which it expires; and
 - (d) state whether it is valid for single or multiple entry to Niue; and

- (e) state any conditions to which it is subject.
- (5) Cabinet may certify and publish temporary entry guidelines to assist with the determination of applications for visas.
- (6) Except for visitor visas, every applicant for a visa must be of
 - (a) genuine intent in their stated reason for travel to Niue; and
 - (b) good character; and
 - (c) good health.
- (7) There are the following types of visas:
 - (a) visitor visas for tourists to Niue;
 - (b) work visas for persons intending to undertake employment or provide any services in Niue;
 - (c) student visas for persons intending to undertake a course of study in Niue;
 - (d) transit visas for transit passengers.
- (8) Regulations may be promulgated under this Act to-
 - (a) amend the purposes of any of the visas described in subsection (7);
 - (b) create other types of visas and the purposes for them.
- (9) A visa remains valid for the period up to and including the date of expiry so stated in the visa.
- (10) To avoid doubt a visa does not entitle the holder to remain in Niue.

13. Applications for visas for travel to Niue

- (1) Every person requiring a visa in order to travel to Niue must apply on the relevant form to the appropriate office with any applicable fee.
- (2) The Chief Immigration Officer will determine where applications for visas may be made.
- (3) Without limiting the places at which the Chief Immigration Officer may determine where applications for visas can be made, those places may be-
 - (a) a Niue High Commission;
 - (b) an office of a New Zealand Government agency responsible for the determination of immigration applications for New Zealand.
- (4) Nothing in this section prevents the Chief Immigration Officer from granting an applicant a visa of a different type to that applied for if he or she considers it appropriate in the circumstances.

- (5) Nothing in this section prevents a person who is exempt from the requirement to hold a visa in order to travel to Niue to apply for and be granted a visa prior to commencing that travel.

14. Temporary permits

- (1) A temporary permit entitles the holder to remain lawfully in Niue for the period stated on the temporary permit.
- (2) The grant of a temporary permit is a matter of discretion for the Chief Immigration Officer.
- (3) A temporary permit may be subject to any conditions imposed by the Chief Immigration Officer.
- (4) Every temporary permit granted under this Act must-
- (a) be in a form approved by the Chief Immigration Officer which may include electronic form; and
 - (b) be endorsed in the applicant's valid passport or valid certificate of identity unless the permit is granted in an electronic form; and
 - (c) state the date on which it expires; and
 - (d) state any conditions to which it is subject.
- (5) Cabinet may publish temporary entry guidelines to assist the Chief Immigration Officer to establish the form of temporary permit applications.
- (6) Every applicant for a temporary permit must be of-
- (a) genuine intent in their stated reason for being in Niue; and
 - (b) good character; and
 - (c) good health.
- (7) There are the following types of temporary permits:
- (a) work permits for persons intending to undertake employment or provide any services in Niue;
 - (b) student permits for persons intending to undertake a course of study in Niue.
- (8) Regulations may be promulgated under this Act to-
- (a) amend the purposes of any of the permits under subsection (7);
 - (b) create other types of temporary permits and the purpose for them.
- (9) A temporary permit remains valid for the period up to and until the earlier of-
- (a) the date the holder departs Niue; or
 - (b) the date of expiry so stated in the temporary permit.
- (10) To avoid doubt a temporary permit does not entitle the holder to travel to Niue.

15. Applications for temporary permits on arrival in Niue

- (1) Every person must immediately apply for a temporary permit on arrival in Niue to the Immigration Officer at an Immigration Place together with any applicable fee, unless-
 - (a) he or she is exempt from the requirement to hold a permit under this Act; or
 - (b) he or she holds a residence permit.
- (2) Where a person is refused a temporary permit on application on arrival in Niue that person is deemed to be unlawfully in Niue.
- (3) Nothing prevents the Chief Immigration Officer from granting an applicant a temporary permit of a different type to that applied for if he or she considers it appropriate in the circumstances.

16. Applications for further temporary permits

- (1) A person holding a valid temporary permit may apply in Niue, to the Chief Immigration Officer with any applicable fee, for the grant of a further temporary permit to remain in Niue.
- (2) Where an application for a further temporary permit is granted under this section, the new permit becomes valid on the earlier of-
 - (a) the date of the grant of the new permit; or
 - (b) the date the permit held at the date of application expires.
- (3) Where a person is granted a further temporary permit any valid temporary permit held at the time of the grant of the further temporary permit expires.
- (4) The fact that a person has applied for a further temporary permit does not affect the person's unlawful status if the person's existing permit expires before their application is determined.
- (5) Nothing in this section gives any person the right to remain in Niue while an application for a further temporary permit is being considered if the person does not hold a valid temporary permit.
- (6) Nothing in this section prevents the Chief Immigration Officer from granting an applicant a further temporary permit of a different type to that applied for if he or she considers it appropriate in the circumstances.

16A Clearance requirements

- (1) In addition to the requirements under sections 14, 15 and 16 every application shall be accompanied by -
 - (a) At least 2 character references of the applicant; and
 - (b) A police report and health clearances from the relevant officials of the applicant's home country; and

- (c) Any other information that the Chief Immigration Officer may specify or require.
- (2) For the purposes of sections 14, 15 and 16 and of this section, "applicant" shall be construed to include the applicant's spouse and any member of the applicant's family included in the application.

17. Sponsors for applicants for temporary permits

- (1) Applicants for temporary permits must have a sponsor acceptable to the Chief Immigration Officer if required under the temporary entry guidelines.
- (2) A sponsor must be either:
 - (a) residing in Niue at the time of sponsorship and be:
 - (i) a person born in Niue who has resided on Niue for at least 10 years
 - (ii) a permanent residence permit holder for at least 10 years
 - (iii) not subject to subsection (7), section 9, or section 20(7)(b);
 - (iv) at least 40 years of age or have the ability to demonstrate that they are of sound mind and good health; or
 - (b) a company based in Niue which is not subject to subsection (7), or section 20(7).
- (3) A sponsor must submit with an application for a temporary permit any documentation required by the temporary entry guidelines, to the Chief Immigration Officer or Cabinet.
- (4) A sponsor may be required to undertake to provide any or all of the following in respect of the applicant including the applicant's immediate family-
 - (a) accommodation:
 - (b) maintenance:
 - (c) costs of deportation if the applicant or the applicant's immediate family becomes unlawful:
 - (d) the costs of any health or social services required by the applicant or the applicant's immediate family:
 - (e) any other costs incurred by the Government resulting from a breach of the conditions of a visa or temporary permit.
- (5) A sponsor must demonstrate that the sponsor has the financial ability to meet any undertaking given.
- (6) If the sponsor fails to comply with any undertaking given the sponsor is liable to pay to the Government all costs incurred by the Government in respect of that failure.
- (7) Where a sponsor becomes liable under subsection (6) the sponsor is prohibited from:

- (a) leaving the country permanently, and
- (b) sponsoring any further applicants for a temporary permit under this Act until all liability to the Government has been met.

18. Bonds

- (1) The Chief Immigration Officer must require an applicant for a temporary permit to pay a monetary bond with the Immigration Department before any temporary permit is granted for the purpose of minimising the financial risk to the Government if the person has to be deported from Niue.
- (2) In determining the level of bond that may be paid the Chief Immigration Officer must have regard to the amount that it is likely to cost of returning the applicant and any accompanying immediate family to a country that he or she has the right to lawfully enter and permanently reside.
- (3) Bonds must be in New Zealand currency and paid to the Chief Immigration Officer before the temporary permit is granted.
- (4) The Chief Immigration Officer must hold the bond in a Government bank account until-
 - (a) it is returned; or
 - (b) it is used to pay for the costs associated with the deportation of the applicant and any accompanying immediate family.
- (5) Where the Government incurs costs in the departure of the applicant and any accompanying immediate family the bond must be used to meet those costs.
- (6) Where subsection (5) applies any of the bond remaining after the Government's costs have been met must be returned to the applicant on his or her departure from Niue.
- (7) No interest or inflationary amount is payable on a bond held by the Chief Immigration Officer and any bond or part bond that is returned to the applicant shall be paid in New Zealand dollars.

19. Grant of a temporary permit to a person unlawfully in Niue

- (1) The Chief Immigration Officer may at his discretion grant a temporary permit to a person who is unlawfully in Niue.
- (2) Nothing in subsection (1) gives any person the right to apply for any temporary permit and where any person purports to apply for any temporary permit under subsection (1)-
 - (a) The Chief Immigration Officer is under no obligation to consider the application; and
 - (b) Whether the application is considered or not the Chief Immigration Officer is not obliged to give any reasons for any decision relating to the application.

PART 3 - PERMANENT RESIDENCE CERTIFICATES

20. Permanent Residence Certificates

- (1) A permanent residence certificate entitles the holder to-
 - (a) indefinitely remain in Niue
 - (b) indefinitely travel from and return to Niue without the need to hold a visa; and
 - (c) undertake any lawful activity in Niue without the need for any other permit that would otherwise be required under this Act.
- (2) Cabinet may grant a person permanent residence status at its discretion.
- (3) Nothing in subsection (2) gives any person the right to apply to Cabinet for a permanent residence status and where any person purports to apply for residence under subsection (2)-
 - (a) Cabinet is under no obligation to consider the application; and
 - (b) Whether the application is considered or not, Cabinet is not obliged to give any reasons for any decision relating to the application.
- (4) Cabinet must publish Residence Criteria for the grant of permanent residence certificates.
- (5) The grant of a permanent residence status by Cabinet shall-
 - (a) only be considered where the applicant has resided continuously on Niue on a temporary permit for a period of not less than 10 years;
 - (b) only be in accordance with Residence Criteria applicable at the time the application is made, unless further Residence Criteria is certified by Cabinet in accordance with subsection (7) that affects the application; and
 - (c) only occur after the Chief Immigration Officer has agreed that the application meets the applicable Residence Criteria.
- (6) Residence Criteria may have retrospective effect if certified as having such effect.
- (7) Applicants for permanent residence must have a sponsor acceptable to Cabinet if required under the Residence Criteria.
- (8) Where Cabinet determines, or Residence Criteria requires, that an applicant must have a sponsor and where a sponsor fails to meet any undertakings required, the sponsor is-
 - (a) liable for any costs incurred by the Government in respect of the failure; and
 - (b) prohibited from leaving the country permanently and sponsoring any further applicants for a permit under this Act until all liability to the Government has been met or has been waived by Cabinet.

- (9) Where a person is granted a permanent residence certificate any valid temporary permit held at the time of the grant of the permanent residence status expires.

21. Applications for permanent residence certificates

- (1) An application for a permanent residence certificate may only be made by a person in Niue holding a valid temporary permit to the Chief Immigration Officer in accordance with any requirements in Residence Criteria with any applicable fee.
- (2) An applicant for a permanent residence certificate may include in the application the following persons to be granted permanent residence certificates-
- (a) his or her spouse; or
 - (b) his or her biological children under the age of 18 years (including those of a spouse); or
 - (c) his or her legally adopted children under the age of 18 years (including those of a spouse).
- (3) No child may be granted a permanent residence certificate on application unless Cabinet is satisfied that the child may, in the child's lawful country of residence, be legally removed permanently to Niue.
- (4) Every applicant for a grant of permanent residence certificate must be of-
- (a) good character; and
 - (b) good health such standards for good health and good character to be prescribed by regulations from time to time.

PART 4 - REVOCATIONS

22. Revocation of a visa or exemption from the requirement to hold a visa

- (1) The Chief Immigration Officer may at any time revoke a person's visa, or exemption from the requirement to hold a visa.
- (2) A revocation notice under this section must-
- (a) state the reasons for the revocation; and
 - (b) in the case of a visa be served either directly to the person or by post to the person's last known address; or
 - (c) in the case of an exemption be held by the Chief Immigration Officer.
- (3) A revocation notice under this section takes effect as soon as it is made and the revoked visa, or exemption from requirement to hold a visa, is not valid for travel to Niue.
- (4) An Immigration Officer may advise a carrier, or person in charge of a craft, that a person's visa, or exemption from the requirement to hold a visa has been revoked.

- (5) The effect of a revocation of a person's exemption from the requirement to hold a visa under this section is that the person must obtain a valid visa in order to travel to Niue despite any regulations made under this Act that would otherwise apply to the person.

23. Revocation of a temporary permit or exemption from requirement to hold a permit

- (1) The Chief Immigration Officer may at any time revoke a person's temporary permit, or exemption from the requirement to hold a temporary permit, by serving that person with a revocation notice.
- (2) A revocation notice under this section must-
- (a) state the reasons for the revocation; and
 - (b) advise the person of the ability to have the decision to revoke the temporary permit or exemption reconsidered under subsection (3); and
 - (c) be served either-
 - (i) directly to the person; or
 - (ii) by post to the person's last known address.
- (3) Once a revocation notice becomes effective under this section the person is deemed to be unlawfully in Niue.

24. Revocation of a permanent residence certificate

- (1) Cabinet may revoke a person's permanent residence certificate if either directly, or indirectly,-
- (a) it was granted as a result of administrative error; or
 - (b) it was procured by fraud, forgery, false or misleading representation, or the concealment of relevant information; or
 - (c) it was procured with the assistance of an immigration advisor who was at the time of application not the holder of a valid licence issued under Part 8;
 - (d) Cabinet considers the holder poses a risk to national security; or
 - (e) The person is continuously absent from Niue for a period longer than three years.
- (2) Where a permanent residence certificate is revoked under subsection (1) the residence status of any dependents included on the permanent residence holder's application for residence are also deemed to be revoked.
- (3) Cabinet may revoke a permanent residence certificate within 10 years of its initial granting if-
- (a) the holder is convicted of an offence (whether in Niue or not) and is sentenced to a term of imprisonment for 12 months or more; or
 - (b) the holder is convicted of an offence (whether in Niue or not) for which the Court has the power to impose imprisonment for a term of 2 years or more.

- (4) For the purposes of subsection (3) it does not matter whether any period of imprisonment is served.
- (5) If Cabinet intends to revoke a holder's permanent residence certificate under this section it must-
 - (a) notify the holder in writing of the reasons for the intended revocation by either-
