

Government of Niue
NIUE PUBLIC SERVICE COMMISSION

OFFICIAL PUBLIC SERVICE CIRCULAR

Timothy Wilson Concludes Chief of Police Tenure

The Niue Public Service Commission announces the conclusion of Chief of Police Timothy Wilson tenure after 4 years of dedicated service to Niue.

Since assuming the role in 2020 Chief of Police Timothy Wilson has been instrumental in leading a professional and dedicated Police Department, National Disaster Management Office and Corrections facility.

Modernization and Innovation

Recognizing the need to embrace technology for efficient policing, Chief Timothy Wilson championed the adoption of advanced tools such as the Mark43 police data system. This modern platform streamlined departmental operations, enhanced data accuracy, and contributed to decision-making processes, ensuring the department kept pace with evolving demands

Impact on Policy and International Engagement

Chief Wilson and his staff were instrumental in legislative and regulatory initiatives that enhanced public safety and strengthened law enforcement frameworks. His expertise and collaborative approach influenced impactful policy changes.

On the international stage, his engagement with global law enforcement entities showcased his commitment to knowledge exchange and best practices. This participation not only enhanced the local department's standards but also highlighted its role as a global player in law enforcement standards.

A Partnership of Service

The Chief's service was complemented by the contributions of his wife Carrie Wilson, a teacher at the Niue High School for several years. Together, Timothy and Carrie embodied a shared commitment to public service and education, enriching the lives of many in Niue.

A Lasting Legacy

As Chief Wilson concludes his service at the Niue Police Department, he leaves behind a legacy of tireless dedication for the safety and well-being of Niue. Chief Wilson will depart Niue on the 6th December 2024.

The Niue Public Service Commission, the Police Department, National Disaster Management office and Corrections facility expresses its gratitude to Chief Timothy Wilson for his leadership and service to Niue. Fakaau lahi mahaki, Thank you.

As the Niue Police department, National Disaster Management Office, Corrective department moves forward, the Niue Public Service Commission will be appointing Brent loane to assume the role of interim Chief of Police until a successor is named.

Ida Talagi-Hekesi (Mrs)
Chairperson
Niue Public Service Commission